

TTN: Intro & Outro Script

Please ensure all mobile phones are turned to 'silent' lest they affect the recording.

Please read all telephone numbers once SLOWLY. To help listeners note them down, these must be repeated very, very slowly in the very last track of this recording.

Intro:

"Hello, welcome to the Tynedale Talking Newspaper's recording of the Hexham Courant for Thursday the ____ of _____. Your readers today are (insert here, do mention engineer!):

.....
If you have any comments or would like to contact us for any reason, please phone us on 07400 096937.

You can also contact us through our website, which you'll find at tnweb.uk, there you will also find information about how to listen to us online using a smart speaker or a web browser.

Please note, all contact telephone numbers will be repeated very slowly in the very last track of this recording.

This Courant recording will be followed by a recording of the(see list)..... Magazine."

Weather: Weather normally below Courant contact details on inside front cover

Leading Article: The front-page leading article. If a summary, just read the full article on P2 or 3

Courant Opinion (if there is one, quite a rarity now): After the above, if it refers to leading article; otherwise after related article.

Family Notices: Deaths only. List of names only first, followed by the full details.

What's On: at the Queens Hall and Abbey (at the cinema only if the Courant presents these).

Then decide the best mix of articles for the rest of recording.

Please try to include at least one interesting article on farming and sport, at some point. Please also ensure that all of the following 'regulars' appear if published:

Letters: Feel free to edit for length. Don't need to read all

Hextol:

5, 10, etc. Years Ago:

Outro:

“That’s all for this week. We hope you’ve enjoyed the recording. We’d love to hear what you think of it, so if you have any comments or suggestions, or would like to contact us for any reason, please call us on 07400 096937 or visit our website at ttnweb.uk.

All numbers and contact details in this week’s edition will be repeated very, very slowly in the next track, and don’t forget, the Magazine will then follow immediately.

So, from the XXXX Team: (insert names incl. engineer here):

we wish you a hearty \(chance for whole team ‘goodbye’\) ‘good-bye’ until next time.”

“Now finally, we’ll repeat all the telephone numbers in this week’s edition, for your convenience. If you don’t need to listen to them again, just use your ‘next track’ button to move on to a magazine; on TTN loan players that’s the button to the right of the main start button.

Here are the contact telephone numbers in this week’s Courant:

The TTN: for comments and any other reason: 07400 096937 (very, very slowly and repeated)
